1. No Swearing, No name calling, no uncalled for rude or offensive comments.
2. No blatant advertising your product lines in the forum unless you have obtained verbal or written from DBMI, Inc.
3. No Off-Topic Threads about Politics or Religion on Roofers Forum – Go to the Way Off-Topic Forum.

We will not edit or delete any threads unless they are particularly offensive and do not benefit mankind or roofing contractors in any way OR your posts qualify with the above mentioned criteria.

OUR MISSION at Roofers Exchange and RoofersCoffeeShop.com

Our "Official" Mission is to be a roofing contractor advocate, putting information and communication at the roofer's fingertips. To promote the positive growth, education and success of the roofing industry.

The "Un-official" Mission is to provide roofers terrific tools (Roofers Exchange and Roofers CoffeeShop.com) that meet the need for roofing related resources. Training, trading, talking, researching and purchasing. To be where the industry meets "for coffee".

We have heard it said that we are the 'voice' of the roofing industry. Funny we offer no articles or editorials, the voice you hear is your own, communicating with each other.

We are greatly rewarded by this business and appreciate all the opportunities that have come from it. Our goal is to help contractors be educated, safe, organized and profitable, not necessarily in that order. To be the industry's online roofing community.
