

Do it all with Customer Lobby

Customer Lobby offers powerful marketing solutions designed to work together to help you expand your reach, retain your current customers, boost brand awareness, and ultimately increase revenue. Our predictive AI optimizes your marketing efforts at every step of the customer journey, ensuring that the right customer receives the right message at the right time.

Grow Your Customer Base with Prospect Marketing

Customer Lobby's Prospect Marketing is our innovative approach to generating new customers for your business. By leveraging data-driven insights, we help you identify and connect with qualified prospects who match your Ideal Home Profile (IHP). Prospect Marketing equips you with the tools to grow within current markets or explore new territories, expanding your customer base and boosting revenue with personalized direct mail!

Expand into Familiar Neighborhoods

Utilize analytics to pinpoint where your best prospects are within your existing service areas, maximizing marketing efficiency.

Explore New Markets

Target new geographic areas based on reliable data and demand. Select the zip codes where you haven't conducted transactions before to grow your market presence strategically.

Focus Where it Matters

Sophisticated data integration helps you concentrate your marketing efforts on prospects that match your Ideal Home Profile (IHP), ensuring higher conversion rates.

Set It and Forget It

Simplify your marketing campaigns with our automation options. Choose from one-time or repeat campaigns to target prospects at recommended intervals or custom frequencies, saving you time and effort.

Effective Engagement Strategies

Send high-quality, personalized postcards that make a lasting impact, significantly increasing response rates and higher quality conversion rates.

Optimize Future Campaigns

Our comprehensive dashboard provides valuable insights into your marketing efforts, enabling you to refine your strategies and focus on what works best.

Nurture and Retain Existing Customers with Customer Marketing

Customer Lobby's Customer Marketing drives revenue growth by transforming one-time customers into repeat clients who spend more with your business. By keeping your current customers engaged and loyal, our retention campaigns not only maintain brand awareness but also encourage customers to return for additional services—often resulting in higher-ticket jobs. Our targeted messaging ensures that you reach the right customers at the right time, maximizing their lifetime value and boosting your bottom line.

Win Repeat Business

Build trust with happy customers by targeting them with relevant updates. Our predictive AI identifies the best audience and sends the right message at the perfect time.

Integrate Seamlessly

Keep track of new and existing customers to follow up with.

Personalize Your Campaigns

Send direct, email, or text messaging campaigns from many different templates.

Optimize Future Campaigns

Track every dollar spent, reviews, emails, etc. with an all-in-one dashboard that you can use from your phone.

Set It and Forget It

Simplify your marketing campaigns with our automation options, saving you time and effort.

Uncover Revenue Opportunities

Identify who your key-player customers are, and effortlessly integrate marketing strategies that will maximize growth and profitability.
